NARRATIVE:

Reynolds, a multi-state offender, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 25. His convictions include first degree burglary, vehicle theft, assault w/a deadly weapon, theft, prostitution, vandalism, possession of controlled substance, resisting arrest and violation of supervision. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest an 80 month term for first degree burglary. Reynolds was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 21st, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Reynolds qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the possession of a controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
